BRIGHAM CITY WILL CELEBRATE ON WEDNESDAY

Brigham City, Sept. 9.—Everything is in shapeliness for the big Peach day carnival in this city next Wednesday, the event of Brigham City's tenth annual Peach day celebration. The managers of departments, E. M. Tyson, James Knudsen and N. C. Simonson, report that this year's celebration will be the biggest and best in the history of the event. These men have worked continuously for the past two months arranging the details of the celebration, and have been aided by the citizens generally, many of whom will serve on various committees during the day.

It is anticipated that excursion rates will be in effect for points south of Salt Lake, so that a larger crowd is looked for. Automobile excursions will be run from all points, and it has just been learned that a caravan of sixty automobiles from the Bear Lake country will make the run to Brigham to participate in the celebration.

Governor Will Attend. The attendance of Governor William Spry and Senator Reed Smoot has virtually been assured, and these officials are slated to give short speeches at an open-air meeting.

The Commercial club has adopted a new method in the fruit display department, and this year all the fruit to be exhibited has been purchased outright by the club. More than 600 cases of the choicest fruit in the country will be shown until 2 p. m. when the big auction will take place and all the exhibit fruit disposed of. Near by will be a model express office established for the convenience of the visitors by the American Express company. The fruit can be purchased and billed out without the buyer handling it.

All excursion tickets sold over the electric roads, Malad, Kootenai and Cache Valley branches of the Oregon Short Line and Southern Pacific roads will be limited to September 16, and all tickets from the south on the Oregon Short Line will be limited to September 15.

Many Peaches Free. It is fully anticipated by the Peach day promoters that this year's celebration will be the biggest and most successful in history. Two hundred bushels of choice peaches will be given away on the grounds, while nearly 5000 souvenir boxes will be handed out to the visitors. Each of these boxes will contain four selected peaches, well packed.

A crowd of upward of 10,000 persons is anticipated and ample accommodations will be arranged to care for that number.

The following is a partial program of the events as they will be carried out during the day:

While detaining the visitors will be entertained at the O. S. L. depot by the Brigham military band and uptown by the Weber Club band of Ogden.

From 10 to 12 o'clock noon lovers of wild west exhibitions will be entertained in the ball park, where a first-class wild west show will be in order.

12 o'clock, open air meeting in front of the court house. Speeches by Senator Reed Smoot, Governor William Spry and city and county officials.

Parade Arranged. Following the program there will be formed on the corner of Main and Forest streets a parade headed by the two bands and participated in by the members of the Boxelder Commercial club, Weber club of Ogden, Garland and Tremonton Commercial clubs, state, county and city officials.

The boosters will march south on Main and counter-march north on Main to Forest and thence to the City park on Sixth West.

2 p. m.—A couple is to be married in the City park, for which a handsome prize will be awarded by the Peach day executive committee. The names of the contracting parties have not been made public.

2:30 p. m.—Aviation meet in the ball park by Omaha birdmen. Two Curtiss biplanes will be on the grounds, one for exhibition purposes. Baseball game between Salt Lake Retail Clerks and the Magnas of Garland. Numerous midway attractions have been secured, which will be located uptown and in the City park. Other attractions include a Ferris wheel, merry-go-round, dancing, theatres and concerts in different parts of the city.

A CLEAN COURSE. "Say, Sam, do you indorse this project of making soap out of sewage?" "If you ask me, I wash my hands of the whole plan."

CHOIR HEARS WORDS OF PRAISE FROM CRITICS

The members of the Ogden Tabernacle choir assembled last night for the first time since their return from California and passed a couple of hours in talking and hearing of things connected with the trip. Just to bring back recollections, during the forepart of the meeting Director Ballantyne had the chorus sing several selections from the memorized repertoire, with Sam P. Whitaker at the organ.

This had the desired effect and Miss Minnie Brown was introduced as "official orator," the choir leaders explaining that she would read the signed criticisms of the critics representing the newspapers and magazines that had followed up the work of the big chorus on the coast, which might be taken at their full face value.

Miss Brown then read the criticisms of Tyndall Gray, correspondent of the New York Musical Courier at San Diego; W. B. Seymour of the San Diego Union; Miss May Denning of the San Diego Sun; E. F. Schaller of the Los Angeles Times; M. H. Walker, correspondent of the Musical Courier at San Francisco; Otto Metzger, editor of the Musical Review of the Pacific Coast; the San Francisco Musical Leader, Leonard Liebman, editor of the Musical Courier, story of his visit to Ogden and his criticism of the choir were also read. The criticisms were listened to with much interest and their favorable trend caused the singers to feel well rewarded for the effort made in making the California tour.

Manager Charles J. Ross made a brief talk, telling the choir of many compliments he had received for them from prominent musicians and officials for the excellent work they had done from the hotel and restaurant managers and others for their commendable personal bearing. In every instance, he said, the hotel and restaurant men declared they had never handled a more ladylike and gentlemanly crowd of people. Before closing his talk, Mr. Ross presented a large framed painting of Festival hall, San Francisco, and a photograph of the choir in behalf of the artist, E. A. Burley, and the Mormon colony of San Francisco, in appreciation of the good it had done in many ways through its visit to the Panama-California exposition. The picture will be exhibited in the near future in one of the uptown business houses.

A brief address was also made by J. David Larson, advocate of the choir on the trip. He congratulated the choir on the success it had made and on the fine manner in which the members had conducted themselves.

Director Ballantyne expressed himself as being well pleased with the recognition given the chorus by the critics, especially since on no occasion while away from home was its work equal to that done in the local Tabernacle. He announced that seventeen new choruses and the cantata, "The Coming of the King" (Dudley Buck) had been selected for the coming season's work and that a series of four concerts were to be given.

THEATERS

AT THE ORPHEUM.

After skipping a season, Pantages' vaudeville has again been booked into Ogden as a regular weekly attraction and the first program was given last night at the Orpheum theatre. The program was not composed entirely of Pantages' acts, Manager Goss finding it necessary to secure others until the complete bills from that circuit can be booked into the local playhouse. This matter will be adjusted within the next week or so and, in the meantime, the local provider of vaudeville entertainment had engaged the best acts that could be obtained to fill in the gaps between the Pantages' offerings that could be sent here.

If "The Shadow Girl," a Pantages' act, sent here from Los Angeles to head this week's bill, is a criterion of what that circuit has to offer in the way of headliners, local amusement lovers are assured satisfactory entertainment throughout the season. The act sets a high standard for popular price vaudeville from every standpoint and the large audience that saw and heard it yesterday afternoon and evening received every feature with enthusiastic applause. It is produced entirely by Sam Hays, introducing John W. Summerhays, one of the state's most promising tenors; Stella Watt, a young soprano of many excellent qualities and eight other charming and talented Salt Lake girls, the Misses Louline Thompson, Lillian Jones, Phyllis Reid, Emma Chase, Thelma Farnsworth, Josephine Young, Camille Lyon and Virginia Young. A goodly number months have passed since local people have had the pleasure of being entertained by a company as youthful, pretty and engaging as that presenting Margaret Whitney's "The Shadow Girl." Every member is capable of bigger things. Douglas Martin, in a "blackface" role, furnished the comedy in a capable manner.

Good music on this week's bill also finds an excellent exponent in Edith Helena, who deserted opera for vaudeville. She has a coloratura soprano voice with a high upper register, good range and much power. To these qualities has been added clever training and one of her numbers is a remarkable vocal effort. The soprano was accorded enthusiastic applause.

Another high class act is that presented by Bigelow, Campbell and Rayden, "The Rathskeller Trio." These boys have the voices and action, plus the words and music, that would make their work "go" in any company and yesterday's audiences applauded them for a "come-back" even after the piano, which one of them manipulated skillfully, had been removed from the stage.

In the one-act sketch, "An Irish Arden," Maurice Downey, a character actor of ability wins his audience. He is ably supported by a company of two and the plot of the sketch is of a type unusual enough to make it interesting.

Parsons and Parsons, in "Kid Comedy" do some impersonations that are appreciated and Neuss and Eldrid, comedians and tumblers, start the program off well. The Orpheum orchestra, under the direction of Albert Erickson, presents some pleasing incidental selections, in addition to giving fine support to the visiting vaudevillians.

RAID MADE ON ONE OF GAMBLING HOUSES

A Japanese house at 267 Twenty-fourth street was raided at 1 a. m. today by Patrolman William Brown and five Japanese were arrested. They gave their names as I. Shio, T. Karta, S. K. Eshkin, I. Shio and A. R. Hasha. The first two were released on $20 bail each and the others were kept in jail.

A charge of gambling was placed against the quintette.

BOYCE BELIEVES IN ADVERTISING

R. S. M. Boyce, western advertising representative of the Curtis Publishing company of Philadelphia, arrived in Ogden yesterday and will remain here a day or two. He is en route to New York City, from his San Francisco headquarters.

In speaking of successful advertising last night, he said: "First of all, the demand must be created by the consumer. The average manufacturer and merchant who has a thing to sell is confronted the first thing by a series of middlemen. Your manufacturer goes on the presumption, which is wrong, that he first must enlist the services of these middlemen before he can successfully put his article on the market. Now, let's take a simpler method. Let's draw a straight line from the manufacturer to the consumer. Let your manufacturer create the demand from the consumer through legitimate advertising. Then, and not till then, is it time to consider the middleman. As a rule these men do not create the demand—it's the consumers. And the goods are merely handled through the middlemen. Time enough to think about these dealers when you are assured that you have created a demand for your goods."

IT NEVER HAPPENED. "Did you mail that letter I handed you this morning?" asked the wife. "No," replied the husband. "I for got it."

"I'm so glad! I have changed my mind about sending it."

NO MODEL. "What kind of a model is your new automobile?"

"It isn't any kind of a model," replied Mr. Chuggins, gloomily. "It's a horrible example."

ORGANIZING THE PRINTING TRADE

The master printers of Ogden were organized last night into a branch local of the United Typothetae and Ben Franklin clubs of America, by Joseph Borden of Spokane, western representative of the organization. The meeting was held at the A. T. Hestmark printing shop and the following shop owners or representatives were present:

W. W. Browning, A. T. Hestmark, B. F. Thomas, A. L. Scoville, J. O. Woody, P. J. Denkers, Dee-Neuborn and the Ogden Printing company. A. L. Scoville was elected president of the local club, with A. T. Hestmark, vice president, and Walter Gillis, secretary-treasurer. During the session, an address was made by Mr. Borden in which he told the local men of the benefits of the organization. Its main purpose, he said, was to place the printers in a position to render mutual assistance.

THE TRAINING CAMP.

For fighting is a business— A lot of science, too— Just bravery is out of style, And by itself won't do; You must know the art of warfare; In camp you will be told Just what to do if you would be A modern warrior bold. —Baltimore American.

IN A BAD FIX.

The well-beloved Bishop of a certain Southern state is so absentminded that his family is always apprehensive for his welfare when he is away from home.

Not long ago, while making a journey by rail, the Bishop was unable to find his ticket when the conductor asked for it.

"Never mind, Bishop," said the conductor, who knew him well, "I'll get it on my second round."

However, when the conductor passed through the car again the ticket was still missing.

"Oh, well, Bishop, it will be all right if you never find it," the conductor assured him.

"No, it won't, my friend," contradicted the Bishop. "I've got to find that ticket. I want to know where I'm going."—Youth's Companion.
